

Reading Cruise Course

Instructions for Completing the Application for Admission

Course Description: EDU 599 I1 (CRN 60118) -- Topics: Foundations of Research-Based Practices (3-Credit Course) -- This course provides the principles of scientifically based reading research as the foundation to understand the complexities of the reading process. The five major components of reading instruction will be the focus of this course in order to prepare classroom teachers for the demands of implementing reading strategies across the curriculum.

This course will be processed as a summer term 2007 class. The deadline for receipt of all application materials is June 30, 2007. Applicants who are accepted will enroll as Special Students (eligible to take one course). Tuition is $1,092.

Applicants must submit the following information:

1. A completed Application for Graduate Admission (available from the Graduate Studies Catalog, the Holt School Web site, or program brochure), along with the application fee of $50 made payable to Rollins College. A check, money order, or Visa/MasterCard charge is acceptable.
2. Official transcripts of your academic work from each college or university that you have attended, including Rollins College (if appropriate), regardless of whether or not coursework from one institution is listed on another school transcript.
3. Students who are not American citizens must demonstrate appropriate permanent resident or visa status. Only full-time student status will qualify students for an F1 visa. (Please attach a copy of your INS document to the application.)
4. A completed registration form.
