

ROLLINS COLLEGE

PHILANTHROPY & NONPROFIT LEADERSHIP CENTER

Donors Forum of Central Florida 2009 Member Benefits

Donors Forum of Central Florida provides information and training to help funders understand the complex issues facing the Central Florida community, make the most effective grants, and have the greatest community impact.

Education

- Receive free attendance to all Donors Forum specified programming, networking opportunities and webinars;
- Borrow books from the updated Philanthropy Center Library; including the Foundation Center's Cooperating Collection, access to the Foundation Directory Online – professional level, Foundation Grants to Individuals Online and Guidestar Premium Subscription;
- Receive special pre-negotiated pricing on HR training through the Employers Association of Florida.

Philanthropy News

- Receive the Rollins College Philanthropy & Nonprofit Leadership Center's monthly e-newsletter that shares philanthropy news from the region, the latest philanthropy research, and community issues;
- Receive the latest reports and information from our national sources;
- Post your organization's events on the Philanthropy Center's online Calendar of Community Events;
- List your web address and a short description of your organization on the Donors Forum section of the Philanthropy Center's website.

Discounts

- Receive discounts on all Philanthropy Center workshops, events and seminars;
- Receive a 35% discount for your staff on Open Enrollment classes offered through the Management & Executive Education Center and the Entrepreneurship Center at the Crummer Graduate School of Business at Rollins College (www.crummer.rollins.edu);
- Receive 10% off on job postings and resume search services with Opportunity Knocks, a job-posting service specifically for the nonprofit sector;
- Receive discount pricing on the 2009 Central Florida Nonprofit Compensation & Benefits Survey;
- Receive discount pricing on a one-year subscription to the Nonprofit Quarterly;
- Use the Philanthropy Center's conference room for small group meetings.

A Peer Network

Grantmakers and philanthropists can often make the most of their resources by working with other funders to more fully address an issue or discover untapped collaborations.

For More Information

For more information about the Donors Forum of Central Florida, membership, benefits or upcoming events, please contact Kaia Forgett at kforgett@rollins.edu or call 407.975.6414.
